FARM LECTURE BECOMES CONVERTS

Experts From Other States Decide to Sell Out and Come to Virginia.

WRIT DENIED IN LABOR CASE

Danville Appeal Refused—Virginia Troops May Camp at Gettysburg.

It will be dangerous in future for lecturers on farming subjects to come to Virginia from other States—that is, dangerous for these States, but not so for the lecturers.

Such is the kindly fate which has befallen the lecturers on farming subjects who have come to Virginia from other States—that is, dangerous for these States, but not so for the lecturers.

To indicate the interest taken by the farmers of Richmond in the best of agricultural opportunities in the Old Dominion, it was found in a not dissimilar audience.

In all twenty-three lectures were held, and 2,000 people attended the meetings.

The speaker seems to have got inside information as to what negroes were doing in the past.

The police are looking for the mulatto, and if found, he will probably have to face some serious charges.

Feast of Purim To-Day. Hebrews of Richmond will to-day observe the feast of Purim, a holiday ordained by Mordecai and Esther when their race was delivered from the machinations of Haman.

Supreme Court Denied Writ of Error. In an appeal refused by the Supreme Court during the last days of the session was that of the Knitting and Knitwear Company.

Want Station at Tuggle. The Statistical Commission, has returned from Tuggle, a station on the Norfolk and Western, near Farmville.

Arkon Case Continued. The Bureau of Insurance learns that the case of J. R. McGuire, of York, Pennsylvania county, arrested and charged with the murder of a woman.

Services at St. Luke's. The Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia, will visit St. Luke's Episcopal Church on Good Friday night at the 8 o'clock service for the purpose of administering the apostolic rite of confirmation.

Divine Healing Services. A meeting for divine healing will be conducted in the West End Rescue Mission, 807 West Cary Street, on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Transfer Liquor License. An order allowing William R. Roach, of 218 Louisiana Street, to transfer his liquor license to Peter Traylor, was granted in the Hustings Court yesterday.

BISCUITS TOO RAW—BING

Angry Suitor Answers Spring Call to Mate With Whack Over Other's Head.

With the recurrence of spring weather and spring poets, when the blood runs hot and mole hills turn into mountains, several dusky swains turned to yesterday with half-brick razors and knives, and carved or beat their way into immortal fame.

It meant work for Dr. Womack. He reported several cases of stabbing and wounding, but none of them turned out seriously.

The first bad case needing Dr. Womack's attention was James Berkeley, colored, of 225 North Eighteenth Street, who, in an altercation with a former friend, stabbed badly in the chest and shoulder.

Pen Dickinson, colored, of 620 Brook Avenue, was walking home with his girl early last night, when another suitor intervened.

PLAN MANOEUVRES ON FAMOUS GROUND NOW GOING AFTER SCALP OF LODGE

Site for Summer School of Instruction May Be Located in Virginia. Democrats, Having Elected Millionaire to Congress, Eager to Crush Statesman.

After visiting the most famous battlefields of the Civil War, with the view of selecting a site for the summer school of instruction for the State militia and the regular army, Captain B. H. Wells, of New York, representing General Leonard Wood, has requested the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad to quote rates for the transportation of troops and equipment from all sections of this State and the District of Columbia to Hamilton Crossing, a station five miles south of Fredericksburg.

It is understood that Captain Wells has several places in view and that he will not make a recommendation to General Wood until after all data is collected. In selecting a location for the manoeuvres, accessibility of transportation lines and supplies will be among the main points considered.

The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac has forwarded its rates, together with a letter stating that the necessary sidetracks and other conveniences would be installed in the event that the Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad should be selected.

Captain Wells said that there would be about 15,000 troops from this and neighboring States and a smaller number of regulars. All branches of the service will be represented, and the railways are required to provide for the transportation of horses, mules, cannon and general field equipment, as well as men. The manoeuvres will begin about the middle of June and last from six to ten weeks.

Among the several points contesting for the event, Gettysburg now seems the most formidable opponent to Fredericksburg, and is using every effort to have the War Department designate that place. Fredericksburg's claims are being represented by Colonel E. D. Wells, Hamilton Crossing is in easy reach of the battlefields of Spotsylvania Courthouse, Chancellorsville, the Wilderness and the scene of the battle of Fredericksburg. It is generally considered among military experts that this place offers a larger and more varied field for manoeuvres than any other of the battlefields of the Civil War.

Millionaire Democrat. "Foss is a very able man. He has been both a Democrat and a Republican in his views, but last year was the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, losing by only 5,000 votes. He is a man of great energy and has certainly accomplished a marvellous feat in capturing the strongest Republican district in the strongest Republican State in the country."

It was the fiercest and most important election held in the Old Bay State for many a year. It was the first test of the Federal Government, let it be the party controlled by Senator Lodge. Indeed, many think it portends defeat to that Statesman who is personally unpopular as he is strong in his powerful machine. Butler Ames, one of the present Republican Congressmen, is after Lodge's seat, and he stands a pretty good chance of getting it, if this sort of thing keeps on. Lovering, whose seat Foss takes, won out last time by 14,000 majority on a straight Republican platform, but Foss turns around and comes out ahead on the Democratic side of the line by at least 5,000 votes.

BOARD TO HOLD BIG CONVENTION MANY FLEECE BY SESSION TODAY COMING IN MAY PENSION FAKER

But Investigation of Barringer Charges Will Not Begin Until To-Morrow. Southern Railway Surgeons From Many States Expected to Attend. Fulton Negroes Lodge Complaint Against Man Who Cannot Be Found.

With the Speaker of the House of Delegates appearing for a committee of the alumni against the head of the State's largest educational institution, and with a jury composed of appointees of the Governor from among the foremost men in Virginia, the Virginia Polytechnic Institute investigation, which begins to-morrow, bids fair to be of profound interest.

The board of visitors will hold a meeting to-day for the purpose of going over the charges of the welfare committee and the answer of President Barringer. To-morrow the hearing proper will be held in open session. The investigation is not expected to last longer than two days.

Richard Evelyn Byrd, Speaker of the House, is one of three attorneys to represent the alumni. Daniel Harman, of Charlottesville, will look after the interests of Dr. Barringer. Mr. Byrd, with Lawrence Priddy, president of the Alumni Association, and G. P. Surface, a member of the welfare committee, arrived at Blacksburg yesterday.

Barringer was unanimously elected to the presidency three years ago. It was not long before charges began to be made, and these came to a head last autumn, when Mr. Priddy, a Charlotte county man, who was then in New York, took the matter up and wrote numerous letters to the members of the board of visitors. The board held a meeting at Blacksburg and set a date in January for a further meeting in Richmond for the purpose of hearing the charges.

Dr. Barringer was given time in which to file his answer, the official hearing being postponed to March 25. For a time there was much talk of an investigation by the General Assembly, but it came to nothing. For the most part, the members were averse to going into any more investigations, remembering occurrences of the past few years. It was felt that the board of visitors was fully competent to properly look into the matter and to take such action as was advisable.

J. D. Eggleston, Jr., Superintendent of Public Instruction, and a member of the board, left Richmond last night for Blacksburg. Mr. Eggleston has always favored letting all the possible light be turned on the situation, so that the matter may be fully dealt with. H. M. Smith, Jr., of the board, will probably go to Blacksburg to-night.

A LITTLE THING Changes the Home Feeling Coffee blots out the sunshine from many a home by making the mother, or some other member of the household, dyspeptic, nervous and irritable. There are thousands of cases where the proof is absolutely undeniable. Here is one.

Southern Railway surgeons will assemble in Richmond on May 24, 25 and 26 for the fifteenth annual meeting of their association. The sessions will be held at the Jefferson Hotel.

Reading and discussion of papers by various members of the association will constitute the program from a business standpoint. All members are expected to report cases of interest which they have treated, and the following papers have already been put on the program:

"Malignant, With Report of Case," Surgeon-Occult George A. Renn, Norfolk; "The Traveling Lotion and Its Health," Surgeon Lucien Lofton, Emporia; "Mr. Lane's Technique in Fractures," Surgeon C. P. Cook, New Albany, Ind.; "An Unusual Experience Leading to Deductions Contrary to the Generally Accepted Practice of To-Day," Surgeon C. S. Cowie, Culpeper; "Emergencies," Surgeon C. Holtzclaw, Chattanooga, Tenn.; "The Railway Company, the Local Surgeon and Their Peculiar Relation—Number 2," Surgeon J. H. Mitchell, Mt. Vernon, Ill.; "Three Cases of Amputation, Arm and Forearm," Surgeon Ambrose McCoy, Jackson, Tenn.; "Chloroform vs. Ether for General Anesthesia," Surgeon J. C. Bogie, Danville, Ky.; "Treatment of Fractures of the Femur," Surgeon T. O. Meredith, Burkin, Ky.

The management of the Southern Railway and its allied lines is deeply interested in the success of the association and desires that the local surgeons show their interest in the work by attending the annual meetings and reading papers and reporting cases of interest.

Surgeon Charles H. Starkel, Baltimore, Ill., is president; Surgeon J. H. Durkee, Jacksonville, Fla., first vice-president; Surgeon H. W. Blair, Sheffield, Ala., second vice-president; Surgeon George Ross, Richmond, historical; Surgeon J. U. Ray, Woodstock, Ala., secretary and treasurer.

Third Ward Voters Will Urge Union of Cities at Big Rally To-Night. A mass meeting of the annexationists of the Third Ward will be held at Manchester Masonic Temple to-night. Speakers will be R. L. Patram, D. L. Roney, Carter C. Jones, John W. Moore, L. T. Brown, George W. Blankenship and others.

To-morrow night there will be a general mass meeting at Leander Hall, a meeting held in Manchester on the 22nd instant that I said that I had voted for annexation, as compliance with the ordinance was only optional. Now, I am sure that the informant of Mr. Page was mistaken. I have never made such a remark. In fact, I hesitated to vote for the ordinance because I thought the burden put on Richmond under the annexation ordinance was entirely too heavy. But I am of the opinion that Richmond should comply with the requirements of said ordinance, if our city elected to adopt them."

Describing himself as a government pension agent, a smooth-tongued mulatto has been fleecing some of the old-time darkeys of Fulton, two of his victims yesterday reporting the matter to Police Headquarters. From both—Henry Treadwell, of 1005 State Street, and Amanda Warren, of 1005 Louisiana Street—the self-styled pension agent obtained $5, leaving behind him worthless checks for $700, which he said was back pension due. He scolded $5 to cover the cost of looking up the records. He did not explain why the Pension Bureau took so much pleasure in looking up over-due pensions without solicitation, nor was he asked.

Feast of Purim To-Day. Hebrews of Richmond will to-day observe the feast of Purim, a holiday ordained by Mordecai and Esther when their race was delivered from the machinations of Haman. It celebrates their deliverance from that persecution, which, instead of resulting in the extermination of the Hebrews, ended in the death of Haman, his ten sons and 75,000 other enemies of the race. The day is marked by the presentation of gifts, and is made especially pleasant for the children.

After a long discussion last night the local board of Elks decided by the vote of a large majority of its members to continue the conduct of the home in the future as it has been in the past. The question as to whether or not the bar should be continued was brought up and argued from a purely business viewpoint, and it was decided that it be carried on as heretofore. There has never been any "wet" or "dry" faction in the club, as reported.

It was decided that the meeting was one concerning only members of the order, and a resolution was passed to the effect that all of the proceedings be kept secret. It was therefore impossible to ascertain exactly how the vote stood. Those in favor of retaining the bar, however, were greatly in the majority.
